The challenge in virtue is proof of its existence or absence in the soul.	4/25/2001	F.4
An illustration of a soul's journey into the Fourth Chamber of Divine Love: The ladder represents the Third Chamber of the United Hearts which is the perfection of virtue. Each step is a virtue. The side railings that the soul must cling to in order to climb up this ladder represent humility and love.	7/24/2002	F.5
Every virtue is fastened to Holy Humility - Holy Love. I give you this graphic to show you how important humility and love are in the spiritual life. True Holy Love is loving God's Divine Will in the present moment. Neither of these virtues can be acquired through the intellect, but only in the heart. Both of these virtues require a lessening of self-love. The more the soul loses sight of self, the more God fills the void. These two virtues work together in the heart to lead the soul into the Fourth Chamber. One cannot work apart from the other. Without them the other virtues do not enter the heart.	7/24/2002	F.6
As the depth of virtue increases in the soul, he begins to practice heroic virtue; that he is virtuous without regard to cost to himself.	3/10/2003	F.7
Virtue is nothing but well-directed love.	3/10/2003	F.8
Trust is so important to the soul who aspires to the Fourth Chamber. If the soul does not trust in God's Mercy, he leaves himself open to guilt. Guilt is the inability to forgive self or to believe that God can forgive sins of the past. Understand that God's Mercy is perfect, all-embracing and complete. He wants to forgive you. He does not condemn. It is the soul who chooses condemnation.	7/16/2008	F.9
Each virtue needs to come to perfection in order for the whole to be perfected.	7/25/2015	F.10
The soul conscientiously making the journey through the Chambers must pray to be given the gift of knowing his weaknesses - knowing when he is off-key. It is only in this self-knowledge the soul can advance and his spiritual health brought to perfection. It is in this cause for perfection the recipe for personal holiness is completed - the symphony of virtues melodious to God's Ears.	7/25/2015	F.11
